Latin America Fiesta at the Zotter Chocolate Factory.

The taste of Latin America has been available in the Zotter chocolate range for some time, but this weekend visitors can experience the sights and sounds of the region with the Zotter Latin American Fiesta.

On Saturday, 1st & Sunday 2nd May there will be a two-day Latin America Extravaganza where you can dance to live music, eat specially prepared snacks and enjoy cocktails, all authentically Latin American.

There will also be plenty for the children to enjoy. Learn how the children of Latin America play, make a musical instrument out of scrap materials and listen to stories from the area.

There will be lots of things to see, do and eat throughout the two-day fiesta. The Chocolate Theatre will be showing films of Josef Zotter's work in the cocoa plantations and offer a real taste of life in Latin America.

Of course, the fiesta would not be complete without sampling the product which is bringing much needed money into the region, chocolate.

Zotter make all their own chocolate 'from bean to bar' in the Chocolate Factory. Everything in the range is both organic & fairtrade. And the cocoa bean are sourced exclusively from Latin America,

Zotter chocolate is available from good delicatessens, speciality chocolate shops, John Lewis Foodhalls and online.
